Poem For the Week

Monster Boo!

If a monster's in your closet
And you don't know what to do
Sneak up right behind him
And yell a great big "BOO!"

Hi Parents!

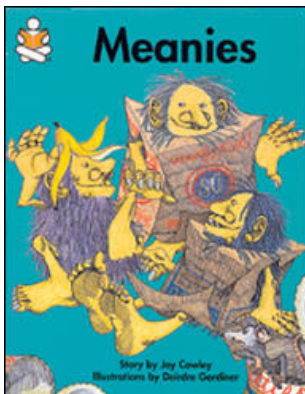

Last week was a wonderful start to the school year! The children are eager to play and learn!

This week we will be adding to our daily routine. Handwriting Without Tears and Writer's Workshop will begin. Writer's Workshop is a time for your child to express himself through drawings and writing. In math we will add to our calendar routines. During calendar we will be counting, patterning and learning the days of the week and months of the year. On Friday, we will try to begin our Family Journals. If we are able to meet this goal, you will find a green folder in your child's bag. Please read the letter written or dictated by your child, and write back. There will be more details in the journal itself.

Please feel free to e-mail me (pgreening@lhps.org) or call (407-206-1900 x1111) if you have any additional questions. Have a great week! Mrs. Greening

Book of the Week

Reminders:

- Shoes... Mary Jane style shoes are not acceptable dress code. We want the entire top of the foot to be covered.
- If you are shopping for new shoes, we encourage you to consider slip ons or Velcro.
- Girls may also want to wear shorts or leggings under the dress. They love to hang up side down on the monkey bars!
- Please do not let your child bring more than 3 items in the Alpha Bag.
- If you have not seen an email from me, please let me know so I can add you to the Prek-A group.
